

Top story this week

Today you will receive information about our upcoming parent consultations that are taking place after the half term break. Please follow the link to book your appointment which will go live this evening. As previously mentioned, these are important meetings at this mid-way point in the academic year where you will have the opportunity to discuss your child's annual report which you will receive next Thursday.

Please contact the main school office if you need any support to book your appointments.

Next week is Safer Internet Day, during the week we will be raising further awareness around staying safe online across the school and in the class to further enhance the work covered through our curriculum and personal development programme.

As we look to the next half term, our Year 5 and 6 staff are busily preparing for their forthcoming residential visits. We also have our epic whole school adventure week to look forward to, once again our children will have the opportunity to take part in a wide range of outdoor adventures. Please keep your eye on the dates each week to find out more information very soon.

Wishing you a super weekend.

EYFS 'Highlight of the Week'

Nursery

We have been caring for some tiny hedgehogs this week. After reading our story about a hedgehog whose nest got blown away, we have been busy building a nest for them to snuggle down into and sleep. Unfortunately, we couldn't find any outside, so we collected sticks and leaves to make nests. Some of the twigs we collected we used to make spines for our playdough hedgehog. We had to carefully use scissors to cut the twigs.

Reception

In Reception this week we have been making the most of the winter sunshine. We have worked together as a team to build a huge obstacle course. We have supported and used our kind words to encourage our friends to complete the obstacle course. In PE, we have been enjoying our dance unit, exploring different ways to move to music and counting the beats to stay in time with the music.

KS1 'Highlight of the Week'

Year 1

Year 1 have had a great week delving into the sacred people and places of Cornwall. We have looked at important buildings and learnt about some of the Cornish Saints, including St Piran. We also enjoyed a super exciting hook for our next writing unit with our Royal Beacon Banquet. The children enjoyed a variety of fruits, pastries and juices ready to discuss: Is breakfast the most important meal?

Year 2

We have enjoyed being designers looking at freestanding structures in our DT lessons this week. We have learnt about different stabilizing techniques and applied these to our own structural designs. We made tall towers using triangles to add strength and buttresses and wide bases for extra support. Everyone designed, made and evaluated their own structures. We also looked at the Tamar Bridge which we can't wait to visit for a workshop during our Plymouth residential to further our learning.

Lower KS2 'Highlight of the Week'

Year 3

This week's afternoons have been all about sculpture; the children made some lovely pipe cleaner forms and followed that up with an afternoon of Modroc on wire. The finished sculptures show real dynamism and are brilliant examples inspired by Alberto Giacometti. In TforW we have been learning about robotics and how automated our future looks. They were amazed to learn that Japan has 30% of the world's robots.

Year 4

This week we have been learning about the importance of protecting the Amazon rainforest. The children started by locating rainforests in the temperate zone on a world map and then learned about the four layers of the rainforest. They created fantastic annotated diagrams to show the four layers. They really enjoyed using technology to research the benefits of the rainforest.

Upper KS2 'Highlight of the Week'

Year 5

Wow! What an incredibly busy week! In science we have been learning all about forces, so on Wednesday afternoon we decided to have a go at designing and creating our own parachutes. The children thoroughly enjoyed dropping them off the bridge and testing their air resistance! During reading lessons, we have been absolutely hooked; The Wind in the Willows is proving to be a very big hit. We can't wait to find out what happens to Mole next! Have a lovely weekend everyone. P.S. Only 31 sleeps until Manchester! :)

Year 6

Year 6 have had a brilliant week of writing this week! In their reading lessons, the children have produced amazing posters exploring what vampires look like, where they can be found and what supernatural abilities they have. In their writing, they have written some brilliant persuasive letters to the Prime Minister about why single-use plastics should be abolished. Amazing hard work Year 6, well done!

ARB

It has been a brilliant week in the ARB this week and we are very proud of how all the children who have moved have settled into their new class. We have been continuing with our 'Around the World' topic and this week exploring the continent of Asia.

Shine

Shine have really enjoyed learning about sculptures, and we loved making our own ones out of Modroc! We got very messy but loved learning about how to make our sculptures look dynamic.

We also had our slime afternoon as a treat for getting all off our class tokens! We had a lovely time mixing glitter and colours together.

Getting Your Child to School Really Matters

In total there are 175 non-school days a year. This gives families the opportunity to:

- Spend time together
 - Go on family visits and days out
 - Go on holiday
 - Go shopping
 - Attend routine appointments.
- Holidays will not be authorised.

Taking a holiday during term time seriously affects your attendance and in turn your attainment. Booking holidays during term time may result in a fixed penalty notice.

As always, if you have any questions or if you need some support with your child's attendance, please contact our Attendance Officer Helen Sowden

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about PERSUASIVE DESIGN ONLINE

Persuasive design refers to the techniques that companies employ to influence our thoughts and behaviours when we're on the internet. These approaches can be spotted on websites, in apps and even as part of some video games. Persuasive design means that this content has been deliberately presented in a way that's intended to encourage you to spend your time or money (or both). These methods often prove highly effective at keeping people engaged and invested for longer than we might expect.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

POTENTIAL ADDICTION

In the digital world, persuasive design can make certain activities more addictive and harder to walk away from. Some people may begin to feel anxious or irritable without access to their device or their favourite app, for example. It can also often leave users feeling isolated, as – if they spend most of their time on social media – they may start to find it difficult to talk to other people in real life.

MENTAL HEALTH CONCERNS

Scrolling online or gaming without regular breaks is proven to be harmful to our mental health. The constant bombardment of news stories (many of them negative), images and influences, posts can create sensations of unease, uncertainty and FOMO (fear of missing out). Young people can get so immersed in this environment that they become less likely to spot misleading posts.

PROLONGED SCROLLING

Social media can draw any of us – regardless of age – into a continuous pattern of refreshing our screen, following posts and links down rabbit holes or reading countless comments made by others. This endless scrolling can cut up time which could have been spent on more productive activities. It could also lead younger users into areas of the online world which aren't age appropriate.

SENSORY OVERLOAD

Repetitively scrolling, clicking on links or playing games can create an unending stream of new information and visual stimuli. Put it this way: social media isn't exactly renowned as a creative, chilled-out environment. Such overstimulation can become too much for young people to handle, resulting in sensory overload and causing them to feel stressed, overwhelmed and exhausted.

COSTLY ADDITIONS

Video games sometimes display offers for downloadable content or loot boxes which can be bought with real money. While these in-game purchases' generosity promise to improve a player's gaming experience, most of the time they cost money. Young people in particular, excited by the chance of enhancing their game, could spend quite a sizeable sum very quickly indeed.

PHYSICAL CONSEQUENCES

Hours spent sitting and scrolling means far less time moving around and getting exercise, hardly ideal for a young person's physical health. Additionally, prolonged exposure to the light given off by a phone's screen can lead to eye fatigue and discomfort, especially if viewing it in the dark. Extended phone use before bed can also impact on sleep quality, affecting mood and energy levels over the following days.

KEEP SCROLLING

Advice for Parents & Carers

ESTABLISH LIMITS

Talk to your child about setting some time limits on how long they can use their phone, tablet or console in the evenings or at weekends – or perhaps how often they can go on a specific app, game or website. You could also decide to involve the whole family in creating this shared screen time agreement, making things fair (and healthier) for everyone.

ENCOURAGE MINDFULNESS

Acknowledging any addiction is key in overcoming it – and compulsive scrolling is no different. If anything mentioned in this guide sounds familiar, it could help to have an honest, open chat with your child about how much time they spend online. Get them to think about how often they scroll through social media aimlessly or habitually open it up whenever they have a spare moment.

NIX NOTIFICATIONS

Stop knee-jerk responses at the source by turning off push notifications and alerts. Whether it's a gaming notification or a social media update, these not-so-gentle reminders are designed to catch our attention and lure us back to our device. Switching them off – or even deleting any particularly intrusive apps – can help prevent your child from being sucked back into the online world.

MAKE A CHECKLIST

Considering a list of relevant questions can be an effective way of helping children figure out why they're scrolling on certain sites or consuming particular pieces of content. A checklist can prompt young people to ask themselves if they're learning anything or benefiting from this activity – or if they're wasting their time. Taking a step back can sometimes help us to see things more clearly.

Penalty Notices

A guide to Education Welfare Services for parents and carers

www.cornwall.gov.uk/togetherforfamilies

What is a Penalty Notice?

A Penalty Notice is a fine that can be issued under section 444A and section 444B of the Education Act 1996. The fine is issued per parent, per child for:

- Leave of absence of 12 school sessions /6 school days or more (within any 100 school session period) during term time, without authorisation from the school, for a holiday for example
- Unauthorised absence of 12 school sessions /6 school days or more (within any 100 school session period) of absence from school, either when a parent fails to provide an explanation, or an explanation is provided but the school consider it insufficient to authorise
- Unauthorised lateness of 12 school sessions /6 school days or more (within any 100 school session period), resulting from arrival at school after the register has closed

NB A Penalty Notice can be issued for any combination of the above reasons, where the unauthorised absence from school results in 12 sessions /6 school days or more (within any 100 session period)

Or, when:

- A pupil is observed in a public place during school hours, in the first five school days of a period of exclusion from school, without reasonable justification

Who can be issued with a Penalty Notice?

Parents and carers of a child can be issued with a Penalty Notice. The definition of a 'parent' as set out in section 576 of the Education Act 1996: By virtue of this section 'parent' includes: all natural parents, whether they are married or not; any person or body who has parental responsibility for a child (as defined by the Children Act 1989) and any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child. Having care of a child means a person who lives with and looks after a child, irrespective of what their relationship is with said child.

How much is a Penalty Notice fine?

A Penalty Notice carries a fine of £60.00 if paid within 21 days of issue, doubling to £120.00 if paid after 21 but within 28 days.

Attendance Information

Penalty Notices are issued per parent, per child.

Therefore, for example, if there are two parents and two children, the fines will total £240.00 if paid within 21 days and £480.00 if paid after 21 days but within 28 days.

Can a Penalty Notice be paid in instalments?

No. Penalty Notices must be paid in full, within the designated dates. However, if a parent has more than one child and is therefore issued with more than one fine, they can pay the fines separately if they wish.

Who is responsible for issuing Penalty Notices?

It is a Headteacher's decision whether or not to authorise an absence and, if their decision is not to authorise, they have the right to request a Penalty Notice in line with their attendance policy process. Cornwall Council's role is to check that the evidence submitted is compliant with Cornwall Council's Code of Conduct for Education Related Penalty Notices and, if so, to issue as appropriate.

Can a parent appeal a Penalty Notice?

There is no statutory right of appeal once a Penalty Notice has been issued. If you believe that the Penalty Notice should not have been issued, you should make contact with the school or academy that your child attends at your very earliest convenience after receiving the Penalty Notice. If you wish to discuss the Penalty Notice procedure, you can contact Cornwall Council's Education Welfare Service on 01872 323400, or email educationwelfare@cornwall.gov.uk

How is a Penalty Notice paid?

Penalty Notices can be paid by card by calling the office on 01872 323400. Alternatively, payment can be made by cash or cheque at any Cornwall Council Information Service. If the 21st/28th day for payment falls on a weekend or bank holiday, payment will be accepted at the same rate on the following working day.

What happens if a Penalty Notice is not paid?

If a Penalty Notice is not paid within the 28 days of issue (as per the dates listed on the Penalty Notice), Cornwall Council will progress the matter to the Magistrates' Court, for the offence of failing to ensure regular attendance, NOT for failure to pay the fine.

If found guilty:

- under section 444(1), it can result in the parent being fined up to £1000
- under section 444(1A), it can result in the parent being fined up to £2,500 and/or receiving a custodial sentence of up to 3 months

Cornwall Council may also apply for costs incurred in taking the matter to court.

RECEPTION CLASSES

Can we please remind all our Reception parents that the children need to bring in named, wellies each week.

We try to spend as much time outside as possible and with the weather as it has been wellies are essential.

IMPORTANT

Please can we remind all parents do not park, during drop off and collection, on the yellow ZigZags outside the school. This is for the safety of your children. Please help us keep our children safe.

A Polite Request.

If you need to get a message to your child during the school day, please call the main office before 2:30pm to ensure the message is passed on.

IMPORTANT

We continue to be so proud of how well our children are responding to their learning and the progress they are making.

In order to do this, it is so important that our children come to school with a positive attitude to learning in the correct school uniform and on time. Please talk to our team if we can help you with any aspect of this.

Karnon Kidz

(the youth section of the Carnon Downs Drama Group)

are pleased to announce that their next show will be:

Friday 5th, Saturday 6th & Sunday 7th July 2024
at The Perranwell Centre (TR3 7JU)

Are you between the ages of 7-18?

Would you like the opportunity to be part of the cast?

Maybe you would like to help behind the scenes?

Why not come to our workshop on Sunday 4th February 2024 (10:00am - 1:00pm)

Auditions are being held on Sunday 11th February 2024 (10:00am - 1:00pm)

(Both the workshop and the auditions will be held at The Perranwell Centre)
